Contract compliance and revenue assurance audits for media & entertainment

Why audit with SymphonyAl Media?

We deliver the revenue verification you need to improve financial transparency in today's evolving media landscape.

We ensure that content distribution and monetization are consistent with the terms and conditions of distribution agreements and that these agreements are performing to a rights holder's full expectations.

Our contract compliance, subscriber, and transactional audits encompass MVPD platforms, satellite TV, Internet Protocol TV (IPTV), streaming services and over-the-top (OTT) platforms.

Our audit footprint covers North America, Latin America, Europe, and Asia, with over 1,000 global distributor relationships.

We expertly and comprehensively cover distribution and payment complexity for every scenario including digital streaming, broadcast and pay TV, premium services, VOD transactions, and digital licensing agreements for physical content.

We offer independent, unbiased, third-party contractual compliance review and validation of all carriage and distribution requirements, subscriber calculation methodologies, etc., including both economic and non-economic terms.

What can you expect from a SymphonyAl Media audit?

Auditor independence to the distributor and content owner

All audits performed in accordance with the Generally Accepted Audit Standards (GAAS) as prescribed by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)

Detailed subscriber and transactional revenue verification and reconciliation

Post-audit support of audit findings until an audit is satisfactorily resolved

Audit fees are retainer-based or project-based. We are not compensated based on audit findings, or on any other type of contingency basis agreements.

All information and data provided to SymphonyAl Media by an operator and content owner during and after an audit is maintained under strict confidentiality.

Detailed, platform-based, objective third-party audit reports
